

Accreditation Services

Readiness, Evidence, Self-Study & Site Visit Support

Independent support for consequential accreditation work.

HEEM helps institutions and academic programs interpret expectations, assess readiness, organize evidence, strengthen narratives and prepare leaders and campus communities for accreditation review.

CHOOSE THE LEVEL OF SUPPORT THAT FITS YOUR ACCREDITATION WORK

FOCUSED SUPPORT

01

National Accreditation Support

Address a defined accreditation requirement or concern.

Beginning at $18,000

Focused assistance for institutions working with accrediting expectations, reports, evidence or a specific area of readiness.

HEEM SUPPORT MAY INCLUDE

- Focused and interim reports
- Special reports and defined accreditor responses
- Evidence mapping and document review
- Policy, governance and compliance alignment
- Leadership briefings and action planning

YOU RECEIVE

A focused readiness review, priority findings, evidence guidance and a leadership consultation.

ACCREDITATION READINESS

02

Initial & Program Accreditation

Build the foundation for a successful accreditation process.

Beginning at $35,000

Structured support for institutions or academic programs pursuing initial accreditation or preparing for a programmatic review.

HEEM SUPPORT MAY INCLUDE

- Standards interpretation and gap analysis
- Eligibility and readiness assessment
- Narrative, evidence and timeline planning
- Curriculum, faculty and assessment alignment
- Governance and policy review
- Mock review and leadership preparation

YOU RECEIVE

A readiness assessment, accreditation roadmap, evidence framework and leadership findings session.

COMPREHENSIVE ENGAGEMENT

03

Self-Study & Site Visit Support

Coordinate the full institutional accreditation effort.

Custom engagement fee

Comprehensive support across self-study planning, evidence organization, institutional coordination and site visit readiness.

HEEM SUPPORT MAY INCLUDE

- Self-study governance and project design
- Standards teams and editorial calendar
- Narrative and evidence review
- Data and evidence architecture
- Cabinet, board and campus sessions
- Mock site visit and interview preparation
- Post-visit response guidance

YOU RECEIVE

A comprehensive support plan, evidence structure, reviewed self-study, mock visit findings and leadership preparation.

FEE INFORMATION

Final scope and fees reflect accreditation type, institutional or program complexity, timeline, data and evidence readiness, stakeholder participation and onsite support. Travel is billed separately when required.

*HEEM provides accreditation readiness, evidence, project management and advisory support.
Accreditation decisions remain solely with the applicable accrediting organization.*

